The Ambassadors Hotel, 12 Upper Woburn Place, London WC1H 0HX

Keynote Presenters

MARGOT WADDELL

is a Member of the British Psychoanalytical Society and a Child Analyst. She is a Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist at the Tavistock Clinic, London. She has published widely and taught both nationally and internationally for many years. Evident in her publications is a life-long interest in the relationship between the internal and the external world, between being an individual and at the same time a group animal. She has edited the Tavistock Clinic book series since its inception in 1998. An extended edition of her book, 'Inside Lives: Psychoanalysis and the Growth of the Personality' was published by Karnac in 2002.

FARHAD DALAL, PhD

is a psychotherapist, supervisor and group analyst in private practice in Devon; works with teams and organizations. He is a clinical supervisor and training group analyst for the Institute of Group Analysis (London). He was an Associate Fellow at the University of Hertfordshire's Business School. He has published numerous papers on psychoanalysis, group analysis and racism, and two books, 'Taking the Group Seriously' & 'Race, Colour and the Processes of Racialization.'
