Gina Miller

Gina Miller is a businesswoman and transparency activist. She is the founder of End the Chaos. She was the lead claimant in the successful legal fight to allow Parliament to vote on whether the UK could start the process of leaving the EU.

She has been described by Bloomberg as ‘an Establishment wrecking ball’ but her drive for transparency, scrutiny and integrity is about reform, not wrecking. Her expertise and areas of work cover investments, charities, democracy and political processes, as well as social justice.

After the 2007-08 financial crisis, Gina and her husband Alan founded SCM Direct as a modern, disruptive digital wealth manager centred on 100% transparency, low cost and investing with ethics.

In 2012, she launched the ‘True and Fair Campaign’, calling for an end to rip-offs and dubious practices in the UK investment and pensions industry. Gina’s campaigning has resulted in contributions to three EU Directives which vastly enhance consumer protection from 2018.

In 2016, Gina successfully challenged the UK Government over its authority to implement Brexit, winning in both the High Court and the Supreme Court. Gina continues to hold a watching brief over the Government on issues of democracy and legality as Brexit continues. This includes setting up the website www.endthechaos.co.uk to provide citizens with reliable, objective information they can rely on to make important decisions on issues with a fundamental impact on their lives.
